I. Purpose :

To set forth policy regarding exemptions to non-resident tuition.

II. Definitions :

No policy specific or unique definitions apply.

III. Policy:

- A. The students affected by the following guidelines are classified as non-residents for admission and tuition purposes. In accordance with board policy, non-resident students are admitted on a space available basis with the understanding that priority for admission is given to qualified residents. Only the board may determine categories of non-resident students that will receive exemptions from the non-resident tuition differential.
- B. The following categories of non-resident students are eligible to receive an exemption from the non-resident tuition differential:

excluded from collective bargaining must have an appointment exceeding three (3) months.

6. Veterans eligible to use Post 9/11 GI Bill or Montgomery GI Bill Active Duty Program educational benefits p

are charged 150 percent of the resident tuition rate. For citizens from Pacific Island jurisdictions that have a public higher education institution but it does not offer a program that is desired by the student and is offered at the University of Hawai'i, the 150 percent of the resident rate may be applied for participation in the specified program at a specified campus upon w3dt (e)12 (teit)-46f2s & Emp07c (and 02TW
